

2019 Canada Cup, December 4-8, 2019

1. Objective

Curling Canada is requesting expressions of interest for the hosting of the 2019 Canada Cup.

2. Background

Curling Canada is the national sport governing body responsible for the development, promotion and organization of curling in Canada. In cooperation with its Provincial and Territorial Member Associations across Canada, Curling Canada provides programs and services to curlers of all ages.

The primary area of administration and the most financially consuming of Curling Canada's responsibilities are championships. On an annual basis, Curling Canada sanctions and conducts 11 national curling championship events. Approximately 12,000 competitive curlers from all provinces and territories enter play at the curling club level with the hopes of becoming one of the Canadian Champions crowned annually. The Canadian Curling Championships are:

Tim Hortons Brier - Canadian Men's Curling Championship

The Scotties Tournament of Hearts - Canadian Women's Curling Championship

The Mixed - Canadian Mixed Curling Championship

Everest Canadian Seniors - Canadian Senior Men's and Women's Curling Championships

New Holland Canadian Juniors - Canadian Junior Men's and Women's Curling Championships

The Canadian Wheelchair Curling Championship

USPORTS / CCAA Post-Secondary Curling Championships

Mixed Doubles Curling Championship

In addition to these Canadian Curling Championships, Curling Canada is also responsible for the following events:

Home Hardware Canada Cup

World Financial Group Continental Cup

Ford World Championships (when held in Canada)

Canadian Curling Pre-trials - Road to the Roar.

Tim Hortons Canadian Curling Trials - Roar of the Rings

3. Economic Impact Assessment

The Canada Cup is the annual qualifier to the Curling Trials and determines the Canadian teams for the Continental Cup of Curling. The event features the top seven men's and women's teams based on their performance the previous curling season. The event spans five (5) days of competition and is regarded as a premier curling competition in terms of paid attendance, attracting large crowds in-venue and television audience (all games are televised). It should be played in an arena with a minimum of 2000 seats. The event is supported through the efforts of on average 200 volunteers. The economic impact assessment varies on location at a minimum $2M to $4M*. Visitor expenditures, combined with the operational expenditures and revenues of the host committee, members of the media, and others, contribute to a net increase in economic activity throughout the host community.

** Statistical data provided by the Canadian Sport Tourism Alliance (STEAM model)

Hotel rooms booked by Curling Canada (not including fans/supporters) = 500 room nights

4. Canada Cup History

In September of 2001, it was formally announced that the first Canada Cup would take place in January of 2003 in Kamloops.

The inaugural edition of the Cup offered an astounding purse of $220,000, split equally between the men's and women's competitions. It was the richest purse ever for a combined men's and women's event.

In 2005, Canada Cup officially became part of the Season of Champions and was held in March.

A number of changes were made for the 2011 edition. Now seven teams of each gender participate in a round robin leading to a playoff, whereby the first place teams advance to their respective finals, while the second and third place teams meet in semi-finals.

And, of even greater importance, as the first event in the Canadian Curling Association's (now Curling Canada) Season of Champions, the two winning teams will also be the first ones to qualify directly into the Canadian Curling Trials and to the Continental Cup of Curling.

(Note: The Canada Cup is replaced by the Trials on the event schedule in Olympic qualifying years.)

While Curling Canada is seeking the best possible bid for this prestigious event, it is not obligated to accept the highest bid.
