

Sudbury, Ontario - March 22 – 27, 2022

The 2022 Canadian Mixed Doubles Curling Championship (CMDCC) will be a thirty-two (32) team event with four (4) pools of eight (8) teams competing in individual round robins. Following these four round robins, twelve (12) teams will advance to the playoff round. The championship team will advance to the 2022 World Mixed Doubles Curling Championship, April 23-30, 2022.

The 32 team Championship field will be determined as follows:

- Fourteen (14) teams as nominated by their respective Provincial or Territorial Associations.
- Four (4) 2021 Canadian Mixed Doubles Championship Semi-Finalists.¹
- Fourteen (14) teams from the Canadian Mixed Doubles Rankings (CMDR), or as many teams as needed from the 2021-22 CMDR to fill the 32-team field.

2021-2022 CMDR

- The CMDR qualifying period for the 2022 CMDCC is from August 12, 2021, to March 13, 2022.
- There were no CMDR points awarded during the 2020-21 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. As a result, there will be no CMDR carryover applied to the 2021-22 CMDR.
- Teams will be allowed to count their best seven (7) events in the qualifying period. A maximum of two (2) CTRS events from the 2021-22 CTRS standings may be applied towards the CMDR.
- Athletes must have played in a minimum of two (2) MD events during the qualifying period to qualify for a CMDR berth. If an athlete does not compete in the minimum two (2) events due to qualifying for the Olympic Winter Games in the 4-person discipline but their MD team still qualifies for the CMDCC, the events played requirement for the athlete will be waived.

Funding and Prize Details

- The prize purse for the Canadian Mixed Doubles Championship will be $150,000.
- Travel expenses (flights, hotel, transport) expenses are the athlete's responsibility.
- 2022 CMDCC champions will be nominated to receive 6 months of carding from Sport Canada's Athlete Assistance Program (AAP).

¹ 2021 CMDCC qualified teams must remain intact in order to qualify.

If a partner is unavailable to compete due to scheduling conflict with the World Womens Curling Championships, the player will be able to compete with a new partner.
