

Curling Canada - High Performance Training/Competition Bonus Program 2022-2023

Bonus Funds:

Any Canadian team is eligible for the Bonus funds, including those already in the National Team Program.

The funds (receipt driven) will be awarded to the top four CTRS teams points as at December 19, 2022, based on a team's results from 4 events listed below.

1. The National
2. Tour Challenge
3. Masters
4. One other CTRS event

The funds will be made available on January 1, 2023.

- 1st - $48,000
- 2nd - $40,000
- 3rd - $32,000
- 4th - $24,000

Receipts will be required for all expenditures.

Note; please keep receipts from the above 4 events as the receipts from these events will be eligible to submit an expense claim.

Athletes Assistance Program (AAP) Carding Assignment:

Any Canadian athlete is eligible to receive AAP support based on the below criteria as outlined in the CURLING CANADA, ABLE-BODIED NATIONAL TEAM/CARDING PROGRAM, 2022/2023 STANDARDS AND GUIDELINES document.

Priority #5 – Sport Canada National Criteria (SR/C1)

If there are any remaining cards available to distribute they will be awarded based on a team's results from the start of the 2022/2023 season. (August 1 – December 19, 2022)

Performance Based Criteria – Teams CTRS point total as at December 19th, 2022 from the 3 grand slam events in the fall and one other CTRS event result. Cards will be awarded to athletes, in order, based on their CTRS results.

Cards for 6 or 4 months will be distributed until the carding funds are consumed.

The 5th player is not eligible for this card.

Note – A minimum of eight athletes per gender will be eligible to receive 6 months of carding starting January 1, 2023. (SR level, previously senior carded athlete = $1,765 per month, C1 level, new senior carded athlete = $1,060 per month)
