Chedabucto Pride

The Chedabucto Curling Club, established in 1963, is located in Boyston, Guysborough County. Our facility includes two curling sheets and a comfortable lounge area.

We are a member-based, non-profit organization dedicated to the sport of curling. Our members are proud of our curling club! The dedication of our volunteers' time and talents year after year is what keeps our club running.

The Chedabucto Curling Club is a member of both the Nova Scotia Curling Association and the Canadian Curling Association, thus members have the opportunity to compete provincially and nationally!
