(c) The dispute shall then proceed to mediation in accordance with the SDRCC procedures which are available at www.adrsportred.ca (the Code) or by contacting the Canadian Curling Association.

(d) The parties agree that the time limit referred to in RM-15 in Appendix 1 shall be 30 days.

(e) In the event the parties are unable to reach a settlement with the assistance of the SDRCC mediator, either party may, within 30 days after the mediation process has ended, submit the issues in dispute to arbitration pursuant to the SDRCC arbitration provisions attached as Appendix 1, and both parties agree that any issues so submitted to arbitration shall be finally determined by such arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the SDRCC CODE. In particular without limiting the generality of the application of the entire SDRCC CODE to the resolution of all disputes between the parties arising out of or connected in any way with this agreement, the parties agree that the arbitrator's award shall be final and binding on the parties and "shall not be open to question or review in a court." For greater certainty the arbitration proceedings shall not be subject to review by injunction, prohibition, judicial review, or other process or proceeding in a court and shall not be removable by certiorari or otherwise to a court.

(f) Notwithstanding the points above, for any matters related to the Athlete Assistance Program Nomination or de-carding, all appeals must follow the Policies and Procedures of Sport Canada's Athlete Assistance Program (AAP) Section 13.1 http://www.pch.gc.ca/progs/sc/pol/athlete05/1_e.cfm.

5. General Provisions

- (a) The dispute settlement provisions set out herein represent the sole and only recourse a Competitor/Coach or the CCA may have concerning the aforementioned disputes. Neither the Competitor/Coach nor the CCA shall attempt to resolve any such dispute in a court or in any other tribunal except as provided herein.
- (b) Where urgency such as when a Competitor/Coaches eligibility to participate in an imminent competition compels a shortening of the time lines set out above or skipping of any of the steps leading to final resolution of the dispute, the parties shall forthwith convene a telephone conference call or meeting to discuss the dispute and shall use their best efforts to agree to a process to resolve the dispute. In such cases the preferred process may be to submit the dispute to an urgent SDRCC arbitration. The provisions of this subparagraph 5(b) do not apply to disciplinary measures imposed pursuant to 3(c)(i) hereof.
