BEAU WELLING of the United States has made a rapid climb up the ladder in international curling.

As a late-to-the-game fan of the sport, the American is concluding his second year as president of the World Curling.

He replaced President Kate Caithness CBE in 2022 at the conclusion of her 12-year term of office.

Welling is the 11th president World Curling and is the second president from the U.S., following Dr. Donald F. Barcome from 1988–1990.

Welling was elected as a board member of World Curling in 2018, with his original four-year term concluding in 2022.

Welling was the chair of the Structural Review Group and prior to his time with World Curling was an independent board director of the United States Curling Association from 2007 until 2018.

Welling, a golfer, came into the sport of curling in a rather unconventional way. He first saw the sport on television and was immediately drawn to the other Scottish sport. Ultimately, he visited a U.S. national championship in person which then led him to being asked to become an independent director. Years later, he became a curler himself, founding the Palmetto Curling Club in Greenville, S.C.

"I was fascinated watching the sport on television and was able to learn a lot quickly from one of my golf colleagues who grew up in Northern Ontario," recalled Welling. "Curling is a strategic game that fits my brain. I have a degree in physics so that aspect of the sport was interesting to me, as well as the fact that golf and curling come out of the same Scottish ether."

Welling is excited about continuing the execution of World Curling's six, new Big Ideas generated from the Ideation Seminar held in Toronto in the spring of 2023.

"Curling is at its best when we're organized, focused and working together toward common goals and objectives," Welling said. "I'm excited about the direction we're moving, the meaningful change happening and new opportunities ahead, while humbled to continue serving our sport's special community of people."

Welling is the Founder and CEO of Beau Welling Design, a golf course design and land-planning firm based in Greenville, S.C.

WORLD CURLING

World Curling is the world governing body of the Olympic winter sport of curling and the Paralympic winter sport of wheelchair curling. Originally founded in 1966 as the International Curling Federation, it initially changed its name to the World Curling Federation in 1990. Following a brand refresh and modernisation in 2024, it changed its name to World Curling.

Today, World Curling is managed by a Board, consisting of a President, two Vice-Presidents and six Directors, which includes the Athlete Commission Chair. They are elected by World Curling's Member Associations and are supported by staff based at the headquarters in Perth, Scotland and around the world.

CURLING CANADA 2024-25 BOARD OF GOVERNORS

THREE NEW MEMBERS HAVE BEEN ELECTED TO Curling Canada Board of Governors, it was confirmed during the organization's Annual General Meeting.

Jody Fisher Meli of Lethbridge, Alta., Rémy St-Pierre of Québec City, and Kerry Tarasoff of Saskatoon were elected to four-year terms. They replace outgoing Governors Michael Szajewski of Kenora, Ont., Darren Oryniak of Winnipeg, and Kathy O'Rourke of Cumberland, P.E.I., whose terms were up and chose not to run for re-election.

Fisher Meli, St-Pierre and Tarasoff join fellow Board members Ray Baker of Dauphin, Man., Roselle Gonsalves of Porters Lake, N.S., Scott Hindle of Ottawa, Jennifer Howard of Courtice, Ont., Teri Palynchuk of Nanaimo, B.C., Calvin Seaman of Calgary, and Jeremy Woo of Winnipeg.

Palynchuk was elected as Chair of the Board of Governors, replacing the outgoing Szajewski.

"I'm looking forward to what we can accomplish together as a Board and as a national organization in collaboration with our Member Associations," said Palynchuk. "Our goal is to continue building on the positive momentum in our sport and continue to lower the barriers that prevent progress.

"I feel like there is so much untapped potential for our sport and I know that with all of us pulling in the same direction we can accomplish great things together." The Curling Canada Athlete Advisory Council (AAC), meanwhile, will continue to have an ongoing and important consultative role with Curling Canada's Events and High Performance departments, and will also keep its voice at the Board level as observers.

The AAC will have a representative at Board of Governors meetings and will be able to speak at meetings.

Laura Walker will serve a two-year term as Chair of the AAC, with Brett Gallant serving as Vice-Chair. Other members of the AAC are Shannon Birchard, Karlee Burgess, Chelsea Carey, Matt Dunstone, Jacques Gauthier, E.J. Harnden, Chrissy Molnar, Jocelyn Peterman, Jon Thurston and Sarah Wilkes.

The AAC comprises representatives from men's and women's four-player curling, mixed doubles curling and wheelchair curling, and are elected by their peers — all of whom must be members of Curling Canada's National Team Program.

"I was grateful for the opportunity to serve a year on the Board of Governors, and learned a great deal about what goes on in the area of governance in our sport that I think, it's safe to say, we as athletes didn't truly understand or appreciate," said Walker. "We're also appreciative that we will have a role to play with the Board of Governors to offer our perspectives to their discussions."

One of the most accomplished Canadian curling teams ever assembled was honoured after being elected into the Canadian Curling Hall of Fame. Skip Brad Gushue was looking for his second world men's title, but came up just short after losing the final to Team Sweden.

It was a tense final between two teams that have met many times in big events, but this time it was Niklas Edin's team that came through with the gold medal.

It was a fabulous event for skip Joël Retornaz and his Italian team, which won the bronze medal with a 7-6 extra-end win over defending champions Scotland.

There were cries of joy from the Swedish duo after the gold-medal final. Isabella Wranā and Rasmus Wranā lost only one game en route to their title. It marked the second time Sweden had won the World Mixed Doubles Championship.

Kadriana Lott was overwhelmed by the love she and Colton, a married couple from Winnipeg Beach, Man., received from back home during the world event. "It's been so good," she said.

Canada's Colton Lott was disappointed with his team's finish but admitted "we gave it everything we had. But we're going to take this and learn from it and look for ways to be even better next season."

CANADIAN CURLING HALL OF FAME

There is no greater honour in curling than to be selected to the Canadian Curling Hall of Fame. The Hall, operated by Curling Canada, was established with its first inductees in 1973. The selection committee meets annually to choose inductees from four categories: curler, builder, curler/builder and team. Past presidents of Curling Canada are automatically inducted into the Hall of Fame as part of the Executive Honour Roll.

IN THE NEWS

Five new members were added to the Canadian Curling Hall of Fame in 2024

TEAM SHERRY ANDERSON

Sherry Anderson, Patty Hersikorn, Brenda Goertzen, Anita Silvernagle CURLERS

Anderson's team from Saskatoon has set a record that may never been broken by winning five consecutive Canadian senior women's championships, and it could have been six were it not for the pandemic.

Team Anderson started that amazing streak by winning its first national championship in 2017 at Fredericton, N.B., and then followed up with victories in 2018 at Stratford, Ont., 2019 at Chilliwack, B.C., 2021 at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and 2022 at Yarmouth, N.S.

In addition to their Canadian championship victories, Team Anderson also shone on the world stage, winning three gold medals at the World Senior Curling Championships — in 2018 at Östersund, Sweden, in 2019 at Stavanger, Norway, and last year at Gangneung, South Korea.

AMY NIXON

EXECUTIVE HONOUR ROLL/CURLER

Nixon's impact on the sport of curling has been profound, both on and off the ice.

Most recently, she served five years on the Curling Canada Board of Governors, and also was elected Chair of the Board of Governors in June 2021, and stayed in that role until the fall of 2022 — the completion of her four-year term. She also agreed to rejoin the Board for the 2022-23 season to help with the orientation process for new governors who had joined the Board.

During her time as Chair of the Curling Canada Board, Curling Canada held its highly successful Bubble events in Nixon's hometown of Calgary, and she volunteered often as a scorekeeper during those three months of Bubble events, all the while contributing to the Board's oversight of the events and risk evaluations.

As a player, Nixon, was the vice-skip for Shannon Kleibrink's Canadian team that won bronze at the 2006 Winter Olympics, and a silver medal at the 2008 Scotties Tournament of Hearts. She played the same position for Chelsea Carey's 2016 Scotties Tournament of Hearts championship team, and was the alternate for Heather Nedohin's 2012 Scotties champs.

There were no nominations, thus no Volunteer of the Year or Ray Kingsmith Award winners named this past season.

MEDIA AWARD

PAUL McLEAN AWARD

Donna Spencer of The Canadian Press has been awarded the Paul McLean Award as a person who has made a significant contribution to curling behind the scenes.

Spencer received the award at WinSport Arena during the 2024 Scotties Tournament of Hearts in Calgary.

A sports reporter at The Canadian Press since 1999, Spencer has covered curling for the national news service since her first year.

Spencer has witnessed some of the sport's greatest moments covering 16 Tournament of Hearts, 13 world championships, nine Briers and five Winter Olympic Games.

Spencer reported on Canada's Brad

Gushue winning an Olympic gold medal in 2006, Brad Jacobs doing the same in 2014 and Kaitlyn Lawes and John Morris winning the first Olympic gold medal in curling mixed doubles in 2018.

The award was created in 2007 by the Canadian Curling Reporters — now the Professional Curling Media Association of Canada — in conjunction with TSN, in memory of McLean, a highly-respected TSN executive producer, for his dedication to CFL football, world junior hockey and, of course, curling. McLean passed away on Dec. 14, 2005, at his home in Brampton, Ont., after a two-year battle with cancer. He was 39.

FOR THE LOVE OF CURLING SCHOLARSHIPS

he For the Love of Curling Scholarships have been awarded annually since 2014 to young competitors and champions to assist them in achieving excellence in the sport from the provincial/territorial level to international competition while balancing their academic studies.

The Fran Todd All Heart Scholarships, new this year, are for young curling student-athletes who best demonstrate volunteer and community leadership through sport. The scholarships support these young leaders in creating meaningful change through curling and reward compassionate young curlers by supporting their dreams.

"We're entering a new era of support for young curlers of all passions and pursuits. While reviewing scholarship applications over the years, it has been clear that many young curlers are eager to share their love of curling to better their communities. By offering a record-setting number of scholarships this year, we can truly recognize and support the pillars of the curling community," said Brodie Bazinet, Curling Canada's Senior Manager of Philanthropy & Youth Impacts.

The Scholarship selection panel chose 20 recipients, 10 for each scholarship stream, who will each receive a $2,500 scholarship. It adds up to a $50,000 contribution to the future of the sport, with $283,300 awarded since 2014 to 139 deserving young curling champions, leaders, and community builders.

Of the 20 recipients, the Governor General's Curling Club – an honourary society under the patronage of the Governor General since 1874 – selected two deserving applicants to receive scholarships financially supported by donations from its members.

The Governor General's Curling Club has been steadfast in its support of student-athlete curlers. With the scholarships awarded to Amber Gargul and Nathan Poklar, The Governor General's Curling Club has invested $12,500 to deserving recipients through Curling Canada's scholarship programs.

"The Governor General's Curling Club is proud to extend our support of these vital scholarship programs to student-athletes who are bettering the sport and their communities," said Governor General's Curling Club selection panel member Wil Thurlow. "We are pleased to continue investing in the future of the sport and play a role in assisting some well-deserving student-athletes."

Gargul and Poklar will be honoured by the Governor General's Curling Club at its annual general meeting and dinner at the Ottawa Hunt & Golf Club on Sept. 9.

A 10-person selection panel determined the 20 scholarship recipients. The panel included: Nolan Thiessen (Curling Canada CEO), Bobby Ray (Curling Canada Senior Manager, Club Development & Membership Services), Brodie Bazinet (Curling Canada Senior Manager, Philanthropy & Youth Impacts), Michael Szajewski (Curling Canada Board of Governors Chair), Jennifer Howard (Curling Canada Board of Governors), Fran Todd (Former BoG and curling leadership volunteer), Donna Krotz (leadership representative), Wil Robertson (previous scholar), Jackson Dubinsky (previous scholar), Sophie Blades (previous scholar) and Wil Thurlow (Governor General's Curling Club).

Curling Canada's For the Love of Curling philanthropic program, introduced during the 2013-14 season to help develop and grow youth and junior curling across Canada, received more than $819,00 in donations and grants last season. Programs such as The Egg Farmers Rocks & Rings presented by Curling Canada, Girls Rock and the Scholarship Programs are only made possible thanks to the generous support of Canada's curling community.
